(2) Inclusion of internship credit toward any portion of fulfillment of degree requirements must be approved by the departmental chair and student's major advisor. Approval must be obtained in writing prior to enrollment.

(#) See advisory paragraph "Timely Completion of Degree Requirements" in the section on Requirements for Graduation.

1. Credits (3) added as a free elective from the deletion of LBST 499.
2. Changing the Level II studio requirements from 6 courses to 5 courses. . These credits (3) will be added as free electives.
3. Add a 281 Special Topics to the list of the Level II studio course options. Students may only use ART 281 once to fulfill one of the five (5) Level II studio requirements.
4. Change of language in the course catalog to state that 300 level studios are considered Advanced Studios.
5. Add two new courses to the list of Advanced Studio Requirement course offerings.

B. List of all associated course changes (new or revised courses, number, title, or description changes, and deletions).

1. LBST 499 (deleted), 2. ART 214 (description change), 3. ART 314 (new course), 4. ART 352 (new course) 5. Reduction of Liberal Studies credits from Natural Science requirements that are applied to free electives.

3. Rationale for Change.

- A. As per changes in the Liberal Studies requirements the reduction of credits from Natural Sciences and the deletion of LBST 499 is being made.
- B. The reduction of studio requirements within the BA program is to comply with NASAD recommendations to more strongly distinguish its philosophical and professional differences from the BFA program requirements.
- C. The addition of ART 281 special topics is meant to accommodate varying special topics offerings at the appropriate curricular levels.
- D. The change of wording to include intermediate level courses (300 level) is to specify program options and offerings.
- E. New Course offerings in ceramics were included in program offerings as per the need for expanded offerings in that area.

Part III. Implementation. Provide answers to the following questions:

1. How will the proposed revision affect students already in the existing program? The revised program would go into effect for the 2012-2013 academic year and not adversely affect students currently enrolled.

2. Are faculty resources adequate? If you are not requesting or have not been authorized to hire additional faculty, demonstrate how this course will fit into the schedule(s) of current faculty.

Faculty resources are adequate. The current faculty member has already begun to implement the two new courses into his workload via means of special topics courses over the past two years. As he previously taught two sections of ART 214, and one section of ART 452 / 572 per semester, he proposes to only offer one section of the ART 214 along with ART 452/572 and to offer one of the new courses per semester on a rotation basis per semester. Fall: ART 314, Spring: ART 352. This reduction in the offerings of ART 214 has not had adverse effects upon the department or enrollments within other upper level courses.

3. Are other resources adequate? (Space, equipment, supplies, travel funds)

Yes

4. Do you expect an increase or decrease in the number of students as a result of these revisions? If so, how will the department adjust?

Revisions to the program are not expected to affect enrollments.

Part IV. Periodic Assessment

Departments are responsible for an on-going review of curriculum. Include information about the department's plan for program evaluation:

1. Describe the evaluation plan. Include evaluation criteria. Specify how student input will be incorporated into the evaluation process.

Evaluation of the Program is achieved through NASAD review for accreditation, standards for institutional and program acceptance. Student input is achieved through review of student transcripts, as well as through an on – site interview process.

2. Specify the frequency of the evaluations.

After initial acceptance: one 5 year review. After full acceptance: 10 year renewals.

3. Identify the evaluating entity.

The National Association of Schools of Art and Design. NASAD is an association of approximately 309 schools of art and design, primarily at the collegiate level, but also including postsecondary non-degree-granting schools for the visual arts disciplines.

It is the national accrediting agency for art and design and art and design-related disciplines.

The Association also provides information to the public. It produces statistical research, provides professional development for leaders of art and design schools, and engages in policy analysis.

Part V. Course Proposals

Course proposals for any new courses added, revised, or deleted as a result of this program revision. A course analysis questionnaire and syllabus must be included for each course. Included.

Part VI. Letters of Support or Acknowledgement

Sign-off letters from interested or affected departments including a letter from the Liberal Studies Committee if appropriate. (See page 3 for guidelines.)

No Departments will be affected.
