We will need to make a cover sheet for ARHI 222 Art in America and ARHI 300 Native American Art to be removed from LS offerings.

Dear Dr. Pistole,

Here is ARHI's response to your spreadsheet:

Andrew Gillham
Chairperson
Department of Art

Hi Andy:

My ARHI 205 course, which I submitted either in April or May, and which had signatures from Penny, me, Brian, (at that point I lost track of it) has mysteriously disappeared. Hmmmm. I am beginning to become paranoid. I have to get signatures all over again. It is now in Penny's hands and I know David has spoken with Pistole.

I know Brenda's course is on the way as well

We have no one currently to teach Art in America or Native American so they will not be going forward as Liberal Studies electives. We are hesitant to take those courses off the books because, if we do, and if we hire someone with the expertise to teach those courses, it will be impossible to put them back on the books.

I hope this helps.
