(L) Recommended Class Size

YES

Number (Enter Zero if No):15

If YES: (Check one of the following reasons and provide a narrative explanation)

Pedagogical
Explain (required):

Most of the observations take place in IUP's Speech, Language and Hearing Clinic, and there are limits as to the number of patients available for students to observe within a single semester.

(M) Catalog Description*

Guidelines: Do not include pre/co-requisite information here. The registrar prefers a concise description of course content, beginning with an active verb.

Provides a context for observation of individuals of all ages receiving speech-language pathology or audiology services. Principles of observation, as well as assessment, prevention, and intervention will be discussed.

(N) Student Learning Outcomes*

These should be measurable, appropriate to the course level, and phrased in terms of student achievement, not instructional or content outcomes

If dual listed, indicate additional learning objectives for the higher level course.

1. To describe the a variety of educational and medical settings in which speech-language pathologists and audiologists practice.
2. To observe and describe the professional behaviors of speech-language pathologists and audiologists, including assessment, prevention, and intervention.
3. To observe and describe disordered communication and swallowing behaviors.

(O) Brief Course Outline*

Give an outline of sufficient detail to communicate the course content to faculty across campus. It is not necessary to include specific readings, calendar, or assignments

As outlined by the federal definition of a "credit hour", the following should be a consideration regarding student work - For every one hour of classroom or direct faculty instruction, there should be a minimum of two hours of out of class student work.

1. Introduction and overview of course requirements
2. Principles of observation
3. First two observations completed and submitted for instructor feedback
4. In-class digital observations; guided questions will be provided for each observation
5. Submit reports for first ten observation hours
6. Submit completed portfolio containing 20 hours of observations

Rationale for Proposal

(P) Why is this Course Being Proposed?*

This course replaces the currently offered EDUC242 section for Speech-Language Pathology and Audiology majors, which is being eliminated because speech-language pathologists are no longer being credentialed as Instructional I certificate holders by the Pennsylvania Department of Education (our professionals are now educational specialists, with certification occurring at the graduate level only).

(Q) University Senate Summary of Rationale

Please enter a single paragraph summary/rationale of changes or proposal for University Senate.

This course replaces the currently offered EDUC242 section for Speech-Language Pathology and Audiology majors.

(X) Are the Resources Adequate?*

(i.e. faculty, space, equipment, laboratory supplies, library materials, travel funds, etc.)

YES

Please Provide Comment:

This course replaces the currently offered EDUC242 section for Speech-Language Pathology and Audiology majors, which is being eliminated because speech-language pathologists are no longer being credentialed as Instructional I certificate holders by the Pennsylvania Department of Education (our professionals are now educational specialists, with certification occurring at the graduate level only). The resources for this course are the same as previously utilized for EDUC242.
