Justification/rationale for the changes:

The Department of Developmental Studies is currently offering two DVST math courses: (i) DVST 095: Introduction to College Math II and (ii) DVST 093: Elements of Algebra. DVST 095 is for the students whose Compass placement scores are the lowest. However, the course numbers confuse our students because DVST 093 is higher level compared to DVST 095. Additionally, the department no longer offers DVST 090: Introduction to College Math I. Therefore, the title of DVST 095 as Introduction to College Math II is redundant. For this reason the department decided to rename the course DVST 095: Introduction to College Math II as DVST 083: Introduction to College Math.
