Description of Curriculum Change

1. In the Human Services and Applied Social Research tracks, SO 231 (Contemporary Social Problems) and PS 354 (Metropolitan Problems) will be added as required courses in the Community Development substantive area. Since two courses (rather than one) are now required, students will choose 3 (rather than 4) courses from the list of controlled electives.

2. CURRENT:

Bachelor of Arts - Sociology/Clinical Sociology Track
Community Development: SO339, and 4 courses from list:
AN271, 272, 314, EC336, 383, FN402, GE331, 332, 360, PS251,
354, SO231, 333, 336, 338, 341, 363

PROPOSED:

Bachelor of Arts - Sociology/Human Services Track
Community Development: SO231, PS354, and 3 courses from list:
AN271, 272, 314, EC336, 383, FN402, GE331, 332, PS251, RP350,
SO333, 336, 341, 363, 448, 457

CURRENT:

Bachelor of Arts - Sociology/Applied Social Research Track
Community Development: SO339, and 4 courses from list:
AN271, 272, 314, EC336, 383, FN402, GE331, 332, 360, PS251,
354, SO231, 333, 336, 338, 341, 363

PROPOSED:

Bachelor of Arts - Sociology/Applied Social Research Track
Community Development: SO231, PS354, and 3 courses from list:
AN271, 272, 314, EC336, 383, FN402, GE331, 332, PS251, RP350,
SO333, 336, 341, 363, 448, 457

3. The rationale for this change is that the previous required course, SO 339 (The Community), is no longer being offered, and two courses from the controlled electives list were chosen as replacements for the requirement. The rationale for now requiring two courses is that SO 231 is broad in course content, while PS 354 is specialized and not sociological enough to be the lone requirement. Together, the two complement each other in providing a sociological understanding of community issues.

Implementation

- 1. Students will be minimally affected by this revision since both SO 231 and PS 354 were previously offered as controlled electives in the Community Development substantive area. Very few Sociology majors have Community Development as their substantive area.
- 2. Faculty teaching loads will be minimally affected, and will be handled within the existing rotation.
- 3. All present resources are adequate.
- 4. No significant change is expected in the number of students as a result of this revision. There is no need for any adjustments within the department.
