

EBERLY COLLEGE OF BUSINESS AND INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY

The Eberly College of Business and Information Technology enrolls 1,994 under-graduate students and offers the following majors: accounting, finance, human resources management, international business, management, management in-formation systems, and marketing. The college enrolls 273 students in its MBA (Master of Business Administration) and executive MBA programs.

The Eberly College of Business and IT has been approved to begin offering a PhD in Business with the first cohort slated to start in Fall 2018.

It is a priority for The Eberly College to explore and implement programs that provide students with opportunities to learn from and engage with professionals in a wide variety of business fields.

The Eberly College is accredited by AACSB International, The Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business. AACSB-accredited schools have quality faculty, relevant and challenging curriculum and provide valuable educational and career development opportunities.

AACSB accreditation represents the highest standard of achievement for business schools worldwide. Less than 5 percent of more than 16,000 schools worldwide granting business degrees have earned AACSB accreditation.

EBERLY COLLEGE OF BUSINESS AND INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY

INDIANA UNIVERSITY OF PENNSYLVANIA EBERLY COLLEGE OF BUSINESS AND INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY

PRESENTS

BILL CAPODAGLI

"If Walt Ran Your Organization!"

October 12, 2017

Dennis & Regina Stover

ABOUT THE STOVER SPEAKER SERIES

Inaugurated this year, The Stover Endowed Business Speaker Series was created by IUP Alumni Dennis Stover (1976) and Regina Stover (1975) to bring speakers of national and international prominence to speak at IUP. Through this speaker series, IUP will strive to broaden local horizons and encourage critical inquiry.

STOVER BIOGRAPHIES

Regina D. Stover '75

After graduating from Indiana University of Pennsylvania with a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Management, Regina Dressel Stover began her career at Mellon Bank, now BNY Mellon, in Pitts-burgh. While working at BNY Mellon, Regina obtained her Master of Business Administration degree from the University of Pittsburgh. Regina is a Certified Internal Auditor, a Certified Bank Auditor and a Certified Fiduciary and Investment Risk Specialist. During her long career at Mellon, Regina, who retired in November 2009 as a Managing Director, worked in numerous senior management positions in internal auditing and risk management. Nationally recognized as an expert on fiduciary and investment management risk, she spoke frequently at industry conferences, seminars and meetings. Regina is a past member of the faculty for the Central Atlantic School of Trust and Investment Management at Bucknell University and the former New England School of Banking at Williams College.

Mrs. Stover has been recognized with the Distinguished Alumna Award and the Distinguished Service Award from the Business Alumni Board at the University of Pittsburgh for her leadership work with the Business Alumni Board and the Business Alumnae Council. She has also been named a Distinguished Alumna of Indiana University of Pennsylvania.

In addition to her volunteer work with the University of Pittsburgh, Regina also serves as a Trustee Emeritus and past Chair of the Finance Committee and past Vice Chair of Governance at Carlow University, as a member of the Advisory Board for the Eberly College of Business and Information Technology at Indiana University of Pennsylvania, as a member of the Pastoral Council at Our Lady of Grace Parish, as Chair of the Audit Committee for the Finance Council at Our Lady of Grace Parish, as past Treasurer and Board member for Legatus of Pittsburgh, and as a member of the Financial Advisory Board for the Sisters of St. Joseph. She also serves as a Trustee and a member of the Executive, Audit and Finance Committees, chair of the Strategic Planning Committee and past Chair of the Investment Committee for the Foundation for Indiana University of Pennsylvania. Regina also serves as a member of the University of Pittsburgh's Panther Fan Experience Committee, one of 22 members selected from over 800 applications. Most recently Regina served as the Chair of the Campaign for the Church Alive for her church, raising over $2.4 million for Our Lady of Grace Parish and the Catholic Diocese of Pittsburgh.

Along with her husband Dennis, Regina established endowed scholarship funds at the University of Pittsburgh, Indiana University of Pennsylvania, Carlow University and Our Lady of Grace School. They have also completed funding to support a Business Speakers Series at Indiana University of PA. Both Dennis and Regina strongly believe that their commitment to life-long learning has contributed significantly to their success and happiness. They are pleased to be able to help others achieve success.

Encouraged to read at a young age, Regina combines her love of books with her love of travel. Dennis and Regina have visited many of the places brought to life in the books that they have read. When at home, Regina enjoys playing the piano and spending time with her family and friends

Dennis A. Stover '76

After graduating from IUP with a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Management, Dennis Stover earned a Master of Business Administration degree from the University of Pittsburgh. Dennis is now a Certified Public Accountant and a Certified Cash Manager.

After a short career in public accounting, Dennis began working at Mellon Bank, now BNY Mellon. Over the years Dennis worked in finance, cash management, network services, Mellon Ecommerce, and ended his Mellon career as a first vice president in the Mellon Lab, a new business incubation unit. Launching a Health Savings Account (HSAs) product in the Mellon Lab lead to a position as senior vice president and Manager of Corporate Development at HealthEquity, Inc., an HSA startup business.

Dennis previously served on the Corporate Development Committee and Alumni Council at IUP. He is chair of the finance council and a member of the pastoral council at Our Lady of Grace Parish. Dennis served as chair of the Church Festival Committee and the Fish Fry Committee for many years. Now retired, he volunteers 25 hours a week managing the finances of the Parish and coordinating capital improvement projects.

Dennis is an ancient and modern history enthusiast. He audits several college classes each year on a wide range of historical topics. He and Regina travel extensively in the United States and Canada and cruised to six of the seven continents.

Together, Dennis and Regina established endowed scholarship funds at IUP as well as at the University of Pittsburgh, Carlow University and Our Lady of Grace School. They also completed funding to support a Business Speakers Series at IUP. Both Dennis and Regina strongly believe their commitment to life-long learning contributed significantly to their success and happiness. They are pleased to be able to help others achieve success.

AGENDA

9:30 AM — 10:45 PM	Keynote Mr. Bill Capodagli Eberly Auditorium
10:45 AM — 11:30 AM	Open Q&A
11:30 AM — 1:30 AM	Luncheon Serafini Room

SPEAKER BIOGRAPHY

"Best-selling author of 'The Disney Way' and 'Innovate the Pixar Way'"

Bill Capodagli

In the past decade, Bill Capodagli has become the most sought after keynote speaker on the cultures of Disney and Pixar.

With over three decades of management consulting and corporate research expertise, Bill Capodagli co-authored The Disney Way: Harnessing the Management Secrets of Disney in Your Company. Fortune magazine cited The Disney Way as a "Best Business Book" and "so useful, you may whistle while you work." Entrepreneur magazine cited the book as "One of the FIVE books to Read Before Starting Your Business."

In 2016, McGraw-Hill released the 3rd edition of The Disney Way that includes exciting customer-focused organizations such as Rainbow Babies – Children's Hospital, TYRA Beauty, Science Center of Iowa, and Acts Retirement-Life Communities.

In 2010, Bill coauthored the definitive account of Pixar's creative culture – Innovate the Pixar Way: Business Lessons from the World's Most Creative Corporate Playground. Bill also coauthored the enormously popular The Disney Way Fieldbook: How to Implement Walt Disney's Vision of "Dream, Believe, Dare, Do" in Your Company.

Prior to co-founding Capodagli Jackson Consulting in 1993, Bill held managerial positions at the consulting firms of AT Kearney, and Ernst & Whinney (now Ernst and Young). Bill was a director on the Extended Services faculty of the University of Southern Indiana from 1991-1993 and presented The Disney Way principles to a vast client base. Bill holds degrees in economics and mathematics from Illinois State University.

For nearly forty years, Bill's expertise in leadership, innovation and customer service has been the catalyst for transforming the cultures of numerous organizations.