

Indiana University of Pennsylvania
Center for Health and Well Being Health Service

Allergy injections are available at the Health Service. Students that would like to have their allergy shots administered by the Health Service staff must submit the following information before they can receive their injection at the Health Service.

ALLERGY INJECTION REQUIREMENTS

- ___ Initial (very first) allergy injection must be given by allergist.
- ___ Allergist name, address, phone and fax number.
- ___ Current, precise, written instructions from prescribing allergist
Signed by the allergist.
- ___ Schedule of administration.
- ___ Dose/volume of serum to be administered.
- ___ Vial of serum.
- ___ Concentration and vaccine contents.
- ___ Expiration date of serum.
- ___ Specific instructions for missed injections.
- ___ Instructions for local and systemic reactions.
- ___ Date and amount of last injection and reaction.
- ___ Health Service Consent letter signed by allergist.
- ___ Student Allergy Clinic Agreement signed by student.
- ___ Appointment with Health Service Physician (Any new Allergy Clinic students or returning students that have new immunotherapy started)
- ___ Current Epi-Pen Prescription