

EBERLY COLLEGE OF BUSINESS AND INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY

The Eberly College of Business and Information Technology enrolls 1,250 undergraduate students and offers the following majors: accounting, finance, human resources management, international business, management, management information systems, and marketing. The college enrolls 316 students in its MBA (Master of Business Administration) and executive MBA programs. The Eberly College of Business and IT started its first cohort in Fall 2018 for a PhD in Business.

It is a priority for The Eberly College to explore and implement programs that provide students with opportunities to learn from and engage with professionals in a wide variety of business fields.

The Eberly College is accredited by AACSB International, The Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business. AACSB-accredited schools have quality faculty, relevant and challenging curriculum and provide valuable educational and career development opportunities.

AACSB accreditation represents the highest standard of achievement for business schools worldwide. Less than 5 percent of more than 16,000 schools worldwide granting business degrees have earned AACSB accreditation.

EBERLY COLLEGE OF BUSINESS AND INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY

INDIANA UNIVERSITY OF PENNSYLVANIA EBERLY COLLEGE OF BUSINESS AND INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY

PRESENTS

Daniel Levine

"Global Trends and The Future of Almost Everything"

October 29, 2019

Dennis & Regina Stover

ABOUT THE STOVER SPEAKER SERIES

Inaugurated in 2015, The Stover Endowed Business Speaker Series was created by IUP Alumni Dennis Stover (1976) and Regina Stover (1975) to bring speakers of national and international prominence to speak at IUP. Through this speaker series, IUP will strive to broaden local horizons and encourage critical inquiry.

STOVER BIOGRAPHIES

Regina D. Stover '75

After graduating from Indiana University of Pennsylvania with a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Management, Regina Dressel Stover began her career at Mellon Bank, now BNY Mellon, in Pittsburgh. While working at BNY Mellon, Regina obtained her Master of Business Administration degree from the University of Pittsburgh. Regina is a Certified Internal Auditor, a Certified Bank Auditor and a Certified Fiduciary and Investment Risk Specialist. During her long career at Mellon, Regina, who retired in November 2009 as a Managing Director, worked in numerous senior management positions in internal auditing and risk management. Nationally recognized as an expert on fiduciary and investment management risk, she spoke frequently at industry conferences, seminars and meetings. Regina is a past member of the faculty for the Central Atlantic School of Trust and Investment Management at Bucknell University, the former New England School of Banking at Williams College and Robert Morris University.

Mrs. Stover has been recognized with the Distinguished Alumna Award and the Distinguished Service Award from the Business Alumni Board at the University of Pittsburgh for her leadership work with the Business Alumni Board and the Business Alumnae Council. She has also been named a Distinguished Alumna of Indiana University of Pennsylvania and a Hall of Distinction Awardee at the Eberly College of Business and Information Technology of Indiana University of Pennsylvania.

During her career and retirement, Mrs. Stover has served on numerous Boards including past Trustee at Carlow University, past member of the Business Advisory Board of the Eberly College of Business and Information Technology of Indiana University of Pennsylvania, past Member of the Board of Directors of Legatus of Pittsburgh, past Chair of the Audit Committee and past member of the Pastoral Council of Our Lady of Grace Church, past member of the Financial Advisory Board for the Sisters of St. Joseph, past Chair of the Pitt Business Alumni Association and past member of the Panther Fan Experience Committee of Pitt Athletics. She currently serves as a Trustee and Chair of the Strategic Planning Committee for the Foundation for IUP, as an Advisor to the Financial Advisory Board for the Sisters of St. Joseph and as a Member of the National Campaign Cabinet for the "Imagine Unlimited" Campaign for Indiana University of Pennsylvania.

Along with her husband Dennis, Regina established endowed scholarship funds at the University of Pittsburgh, Indiana University of Pennsylvania, Carlow University and Our Lady of Grace School. They have also funded a Business Speakers Series at Indiana University of Pennsylvania. Both Dennis and Regina strongly believe that their commitment to life-long learning has contributed significantly to their success and happiness. They are pleased to be able to help others achieve success.

Encouraged to read at a young age, Regina combines her love of books with her love of travel. Dennis and Regina have visited many of the places, including all seven continents, brought to life in the books that they have read. When at home, Regina enjoys playing the piano and spending time with her family and friends.

Dennis A. Stover '76

After graduating from Indiana University of Pennsylvania with a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Management, Dennis Stover earned a Master of Business Administration degree from the University of Pittsburgh. Dennis is a Certified Public Accountant and a Certified Cash Manager.

After a short career in public accounting, Dennis began working at Mellon Bank, now BNY Mellon. Over the years Dennis worked in Finance, Cash Management, Network Services, Mellon Ecommerce, and ended his Mellon career as a First Vice President in the Mellon Lab, a new business incubation unit. Launching a Health Savings Account (HSAs) product in the Mellon Lab led to a position as Senior Vice President and Manager of Corporate Development at HealthEquity, Inc., an HSA startup business. Mr. Stover also served as a faculty member at Robert Morris University in addition to teaching CPA exam review courses.

Dennis previously served on the Corporate Development Committee and Alumni Council at Indiana University of Pennsylvania. Dennis is past Chair of the Finance Council and a past member of the Pastoral Council at Our Lady of Grace Parish. Dennis served as Chair of the Our Lady of Grace Church Festival Committee and the Fish Fry Committee for many years. Now retired, Dennis volunteers 25 hours a week managing the finances of Casa San Jose and works with the St. Vincent de Paul Society food bank and furniture pick-up and delivery service. Mr. Stover is also a member of the National Campaign Cabinet for the "Imagine Unlimited" campaign for Indiana University of Pennsylvania.

Along with his wife Regina, Dennis established endowed scholarship funds at the University of Pittsburgh, Indiana University of Pennsylvania, Carlow University and Our Lady of Grace School. They have also funded a Business Speakers Series at Indiana University of Pennsylvania. Both Dennis and Regina strongly believe that their commitment to life-long learning has contributed significantly to their success and happiness. They are pleased to be able to help others achieve success.

Dennis is an ancient and modern history buff. He audits several college classes each year on a wide range of historical topics. Dennis and Regina travel extensively in the United States and Canada and have cruised to all seven continents

Together, Dennis and Regina established endowed scholarship funds at IUP as well as at the University of Pittsburgh, Carlow University and Our Lady of Grace School. They also completed funding to support a Business Speakers Series at IUP. Both Dennis and Regina strongly believe their commitment to life-long learning contributed significantly to their success and happiness. They are pleased to be able to help others achieve success.

AGENDA

9:30 AM - 10:45 AM	Keynote Mr. Daniel Levine Eberly Auditorium
10:45 AM - 11:30 AM	Open Q&A
11:30 AM - 1:30 PM	Luncheon Serafini Room

SPEAKER BIOGRAPHY

Daniel Levine (DanielLevine.com) is one of the world's best-known trends experts. Named "the ultimate guru of cool" by CNN, he is the author of over 20 best-selling books and a frequent guest on international television and radio. Daniel is the executive director of the Avant-Guide Institute, a New York-based trends consultancy, where he is the leader of a huge team of trend-spotters who track the latest ideas from around the globe. From American Express and Microsoft, to South African Tourism and the UNWTO, Daniel works with businesses and governments around the world to help them be more relevant, innovative and profitable.

Daniel regularly works with top companies worldwide, from Intel, MasterCard, Samsonite and Saatchi & Saatchi, to McDonald's, Pfizer, Carlsberg Breweries and more. He has spoken at schools such as: Stern School of Business at New York University, Tec de Monterrey in Mexico City, Graduate School of Business at Stanford University and INSEAD at Fontainebleau, France.

Daniel focuses on business trends, consumer trends and tech trends across the industrial spectrum, which means he will give our students fresh insights and inspiration based on what businesses around the world – and across numerous industries – will be doing to successfully attract customers and increase sales.

As a future business leader, knowing what is now isn't enough – you also need to know what will be, or you're gone. Tomorrow's world will look vastly different from today's, so strap on your jetpack and get ready for an exhilarating "advance preview" of the most spectacular and meaningful trends that are guaranteed to shake up our world. In this fast-paced presentation packed with keen insights, you will get a "sneak peek" into the contemporary culture of tomorrow – and the changes that are revolutionizing the way we all work, live and consume. Global trends expert Daniel Levine will treat you to a glimpse of everything that matters – from the future of ecology, technology, transportation and medicine, to communications, food, business, and even human relationships. Plus, he will put it into perspective and connect the dots so you know what it means for your success.

Daniel Levine

