

INDIANA UNIVERSITY OF PENNSYLVANIA
Division of Student Affairs Keystones and Learning Outcomes

STUDENT SUCCESS

1. Demonstrate and apply critical, reflective, and creative thinking.
2. Nurture a curiosity and desire for lifelong learning.
3. Identify and cultivate skills, education, and interests that advance professional aspirations.
4. Communicate effectively and responsibly across all forms of media.
5. Demonstrate ethical reasoning and action.

INDIVIDUAL AND COMMUNITY WELL-BEING

6. Develop an integrated sense of identity, awareness, esteem, and respect.
7. Engage in behaviors that advance the well-being of self and others.
8. Identify and mitigate risk factors to help safeguard the individual and the community.

INCLUSION AND ENGAGEMENT

9. Develop an ability to work collaboratively with others, including those with different or conflicting perspectives.
10. Demonstrate understanding, acceptance, fairness, and respect for all individuals
11. Demonstrate civic knowledge, responsibility, and engagement across communities.
12. Understand, value, and incorporate diverse individuals, perspectives, and experiences in strengthening community.

Revised Summer 2013

Approved September 2013