

DIGHTON MCGLACHLAN FIDDNER, JR
Assistant Professor
Political Science
Indiana University of Pennsylvania

PROFESSIONAL INTERESTS: International Relations, (American) Foreign Policy, Cyber (National) Security Policy & Strategy, Intelligence Process & Policy

EDUCATION:

Doctorate of Philosophy (PhD) (Public and International Affairs), University of Pittsburgh, Pittsburgh, PA. 2003.

Master of Arts, Political Science (with Honors), Kansas University, Lawrence, Kansas 1980.

Bachelor of Science, Psychology, Davidson College, Davidson, North Carolina - 1967.

MILITARY EDUCATION: Retired from active duty, U.S. Army - September 1988.

National Operations Security (National Security Agency) - 1984

U.S. Army Command & General Staff College - 1979

Military History - U.S. Military Academy - 1997

Nuclear/Chemical Target Analyst – 1973

U.S. Army Ranger School – 1968

Courses Taught:

World Politics

American Foreign Policy

Dimensions of National Security

Intelligence Process and Policy

SELECTED PUBLICATIONS and CONFERENCE PARTICIPATION:

Cyberspace's Strategic Domain's Implications for National Security, CISS, Jagiellonian University Millennium Conference 2015, Krakow, Poland, June 18-20, 2015.

Defining a Framework for Decision Making in Cyberspace, Strengthening Cybersecurity Series 2015, IBM Center for the Business of Government, February 4, 2015.

The Birth of a Bright Idea: A Proof of Concept Video Module for Use in Teaching Research Methods to Undergraduate Students (with David D. Chambers and Ms. Brittany L. Pavolik, ABD, Communications Media). 2015 American Political Science Association Teaching and Learning Conference, January 16 – 18, 2015.

Using Advanced Video and Multimedia Technologies to Address the Lack of Early Stage Research Experience in Undergraduate and Graduate Education (with Dr. David Chambers and Ms. Brittany Pavolik, doctoral candidate, Communications-Media). National Social Science Association Conference 2014, April 14, 2014.

Managing Cyberspace National Security. Peace Studies Society (PSS)-International Studies Association (ISA) Joint Conference, Budapest, Hungary, June 27-29, 2013.

Who Controls Cyberspace? A Puzzle for National Security and International Relations. MIT/Harvard Explorations in Cyber International Relations workshop, November 6-7, 2012.

Cyberspace: Malevolent Actors, Criminal Opportunities & Strategic Competition. Co-sponsored, along with the Ridgway Center for International Security Studies, the U.S. Army War Colleges' Strategic Studies Institute, and the National Cyber-Forensics & Training Alliance and participated as member of "Wrap Up" Panel, November 1-2, 2012.

Office of Secretary of Defense (OSD) Minerva Initiative Pre-Proposal Conference, September 13-14, 2012.

Strategy in the ~~Missile~~ Cyber Age (with apologies to Dr. Brody). British International Studies Association (BISA) and the International Studies (ISA) Joint International Conference, Edinburgh, Scotland, June 20-22, 2012.

National Cyber Security Strategy against Malevolent Use of the Global Cyberspace. 3rd World International Studies Committee (WISC) Conference, Porto, Portugal, August 17-20, 2011.

Chair, Ethnicity and Statebuilding panel and Discussant, Organizing Cooperation in Latin America panel, 3rd World International Studies Committee (WISC) Conference, Porto, Portugal, August 17-20, 2011.

Winnowing Chaff: The Research Roundtable as a Means for teaching Students How to Choose and Define Research Questions. Workshop with Dr. David Chambers. 2010 American Political Science Association Teaching and Learning Conference, February 5-7, 2010.

Co-Discussant (with Dr. David Chambers). "Exploring Different Models of Inquiry." 2010 American Political Science Association Teaching and Learning Conference, February 5-7, 2010.

Cyberthreats, Challenges, and Response. Conference co-sponsored with Ridgway Center for International Security Studies, University of Pittsburgh and John P. Murtha Institute for Homeland Security, September 11, 2009.

The Cartagena Summit: Cooperative Counter-Drug Policy, Case 299. Institute for the Study of Diplomacy, Pew Case Study Center, School of Foreign Service, Georgetown University, Washington, D.C. July, 2009.

Research Roundtable as Pedagogy: Front-loading Research Process Instruction. Innovative panel (co-chair with Dr. David Chambers) International Studies Association 50th Annual Convention, February 15-18, 2009.

"Abrogation of the Social Contract?" (co-author, Dr. John Sitton), 2nd World International Studies Committee (WISC) Conference, Ljubljana, Slovenia, July 23-26, 2008.

Chair. U.S. Foreign Policy panel, 2nd World International Studies Committee (WISC) Conference, Ljubljana, Slovenia, July 23-26, 2008.

Medieval Ideology and 21st Century Technology: Al Qaeda, Terrorism and the Internet. International Studies Association 49th Annual Convention, and chair, Radical Islam Panel, March 26th - 29th, 2008

Co-host. Medieval Ideology and 21st Century Technology: Al Qaeda, Terrorism and the Internet inaugural research roundtable with John P. Murtha Institute for Homeland Security, October 5-6, 2007.

Scale-free Policy Organizations' Network: Artifact or Phenomenon? Proceedings: International Conference on Complex Systems (ICCS2006), June 25-30, 2006 and InterJournal (refereed World Wide Web-based Internet journal).

The Information Infrastructure System As a National Security Risk and U.S. Information Infrastructure System National Security Policy, 1990-2000. Dissertation. May 2003.

Participant in the European Commission's A Transatlantic Agenda: EU/US Co-operation for Preventing Computer Related Crime fact-finding mission at the University of Pittsburgh's Matthew B. Ridgway Center, April, 2002.

Federal Drug Control Policy: The Federal Landscape. Proceedings, Panel on the Military: The Drug War, Conference of International Security Studies Section of the International Studies Association (ISA), 8-10 November 1990.

Sponsored Research:

Decision Making Implications of Defining & Understanding Cyberspace (with Drs. David Chambers and Mark Piwinsky and Ms. Brittany Pavolik, Communications-Media doctoral candidate), University Senate Research Committee, $1932 supplement, September 20, 2013.

Decision Making Implications of Defining & Understanding Cyberspace. IBM Center for the Business of Government, $20,000, June 16, 2013.

IUP President's Advancing Grantsmanship Award, $2500, August 16, 2012.

Winnowing Chaff: The Research Roundtable as a Means for teaching Students How to Choose and Define Research Questions (with Dr. David Chambers), University Senate Research Committee $429, September 2009.

Cybersecurity and Cyberspace Research. John P. Murtha Institute for Homeland Security, $20,000, 2008.

Professional Affiliations:

International Studies Association

American Political Science Association;

John P. Murtha Institute for Homeland Security Fellow (March 2008- May 24, 2012),

Advisory Board (December 4, 2009-May 24, 2012), and Co-Director (July 1, 2011-May 24, 2012).

Matthew B. Ridgway Center for International Security Studies, Graduate School of Public & International Affairs, University of Pittsburgh

MIT-Harvard Exploration in Cyber International Relations Forum