

Student Affairs; Week in Review

Volume 1, Issue 2
Week of Oct. 21 - Oct. 25

Inside The Issue:

Updates
Publications and Conferences
Upcoming Events
Contact Us

Updates

Know a student who needs centering? Koru Mindfulness courses are starting soon. Students can register online for this free, four week course. Brought to you by the Counseling Center and the Mindfulness Living-Learning Community.

To date, the Department for Disability Access and Advising (D2A2) has registered 800 students to receive services.

To date, Health Service has given over 600 flu shots.

The Student Coop is currently taking reservations for the HUB for Spring 2020.

Folger Hall will now be open regularly, M-F, 8 pm- 1 am! The hall will be a new student commons space and will also serve late-night snacks.

The MASS Office (a part of MCSLE) now has a newsletter! For your monthly edition featuring multicultural, culturally-focused, and identity-based events at IUP, sign up here!

The IUP Food Pantry and Help Center continues to accept donations. Looking to assist students in need? Click here to help.

On-campus housing sign-ups begin Monday, October 21. Current IUP students qualify for reduced housing rates for the 2020-2021 school year!

Publications and Conferences

Dr. Dan Burkett and Li Teng from the Living-Learning Executive Team (LLET) will attend the National Learning Communities Conference and present their LLET's work entitled, "Living-Learning Certificate Programs: An innovative model at IUP," on Nov. 14-16 in Indianapolis, Indiana.

Upcoming Events

Silent Witness Display

The Haven Project will be sponsoring an exhibit from October 24-October 30 in the HSS first floor lobby. The installation will feature silhouettes that each represent an adult or child that was killed by domestic violence. Each person has a story, and these will be told through this exhibit. A trigger warning is in effect.

Halls of Horror

This annual, free event is designed to give you a fright! All are welcome, including staff, faculty, students, and their families. If you are brave or just love to get scared, stop by Wallwork Hall, room G-98, on Thursday, October 24, from 7-10 pm. A special shout out to our Residence Hall Councils for their hard work in preparing for this event.

Memorial for Brian Swatt

He was an engaged and active student at IUP, serving as president of SGA and a member of Kappa Sigma fraternity. All who wish to honor and celebrate Brian's life are invited to attend the service on Thursday, October 24 at 3:00 pm in the Toretti Auditorium of the KCAC.

Men's Basketball Intramurals

Registration deadline is Monday, October 21. Register at imleagues.com/IUP.

PreEP Your Paws

Health Service and Health and Wellness Promotion are partnering up to teach students about HIV and HIV prevention and to offer free flu shots and STI testing on Wednesday, October 23.

Testing will be offered from 5-7:30 pm in Health Services in Suites on Maple East.

From 6-7:30, the Just Paws Therapy Dogs will arrive in room G60 in SOME, and students will get the chance to adopt their own stuffed therapy dog! Pup bucks will be awarded!

It's On Us Volunteer Training

Taking place on Tuesday, October 22, from 5-6 pm in Suites on Maple East. Learn more about the National Campaign that encourages all of us to be better bystanders, teaches us about power-based violence, sexual violence prevention, and more. Brought to you by the Haven Project.

Contact Us

Website

Email

Phone:
724-357-2220

Address:

Sutton Hall, Suite 211-216
1011 South Drive
Indiana, PA 15705

