

BS, Regional Planning
Indiana University of Pennsylvania

Student Portfolio Evaluation Rubric

	0-1 Point	2-3 Points	4 points	5 points	Total
A) Fulfills Minimum Requirement Geography majors are required to include at least 4 relevant works, whereas Regional Planning majors are required to include at least 6 relevant works in their portfolios.	Student has compiled at least 1-2 relevant projects	Student has compiled at least 2-3 relevant projects	Student has compiled at least 3-5 relevant projects	Student has compiled at least 4-6 relevant projects
B) Content and Logic of Organization Portfolio should be organized logically with a cover page and table of contents. Portfolios should include a professional resume, and concise summaries of their projects in a page or two. Detailed project reports/ papers should be included with the concise summary pages.	Content is extremely weak, organization is extremely poor, no clear or coherent logic behind projects compiled	Content is weak, organization is poor, lacks coherent logic behind projects compiled	Content is good, relevant projects are highlighted, organization is good, projects are logically compiled	Content is excellent, relevant projects are highlighted, organization is excellent, projects are logically compiled
C) Quality of Portfolio Design and Presentation Portfolio should be designed in a professional manner.	Portfolio is impossible to peruse, quality of graphics, maps, pictures is extremely poor, not professionally designed	Portfolio is hard to peruse, quality of graphics, maps, pictures is poor, portfolio is compiled but not professionally designed	Portfolio is easy to peruse, quality of graphics, maps, pictures is good, portfolio is professionally designed	Portfolio is very easy to peruse, quality of graphics, maps, pictures is excellent, portfolio looks extremely professional
D) Depth and Clarity of Projects Portfolio should include concise summaries and detailed reports/ papers of relevant projects. Summary pages should highlight the project background, scope and outcome (course details must be included). Students should be able to demonstrate that their projects fulfill the academic standards.	Projects included are not relevant to the major, projects reflect little or no substantive depth, demonstrates poor understanding of the material	Projects included are somewhat relevant to the major, projects reflect elementary-level substantive depth and understanding of the material	Projects included are relevant to the major, projects reflect beyond elementary-level substantive depth, demonstrates good understanding of the material	Projects included are extremely relevant to the major, projects reflect high degree of complexity and substantive depth demonstrating matured understanding of the material
Additional Notes:				Maximum Possible Points: 20

Geography and Regional Planning Major students are required to compile 4-6 relevant projects in their Portfolio in a professional manner.

BS, Regional Planning
Indiana University of Pennsylvania

	0-1 Point	2-3 Points	4 points	5 points	Total
A) Content and Logic of Organization Portfolio should be organized logically with a cover page and table of contents. Portfolios should include a professional resume, and concise summaries of their projects in a page or two. Detailed project reports/ papers should be included with the concise summary pages.	Content is extremely weak, organization is extremely poor, no clear or coherent logic behind projects compiled	Content is weak, organization is poor, lacks coherent logic behind projects compiled	Content is good, relevant projects are highlighted, organization is good, projects are logically compiled	Content is excellent, relevant projects are highlighted, organization is excellent, projects are logically compiled
B) Quality of Portfolio Design and Presentation Portfolio should be designed in a professional manner.	Portfolio is impossible to peruse, quality of graphics, maps, pictures is extremely poor, not professionally designed	Portfolio is hard to peruse, quality of graphics, maps, pictures is poor, portfolio is compiled but not professionally designed	Portfolio is easy to peruse, quality of graphics, maps, pictures is good, portfolio is professionally designed	Portfolio is very easy to peruse, quality of graphics, maps, pictures is excellent, portfolio looks extremely professional
C) Depth and Clarity of Projects Portfolio should include concise summaries and detailed reports/ papers of relevant projects. Summary pages should highlight the project background, scope and outcome (course details must be included). Students should be able to demonstrate that their projects fulfill the academic standards.	Projects included are not relevant to the major, projects reflect little or no substantive depth, demonstrates poor understanding of the material	Projects included are somewhat relevant to the major, projects reflect elementary-level substantive depth and understanding of the material	Projects included are relevant to the major, projects reflect beyond elementary-level substantive depth, demonstrates good understanding of the material	Projects included are extremely relevant to the major, projects reflect high degree of complexity and substantive depth demonstrating matured understanding of the material
Additional Notes:				Maximum Possible Points: 20

Geography and Regional Planning Major students are required to compile 4-6 relevant projects in their Portfolio in a professional manner.