Applied instructor / Adviser for music minor

Minor in Music (non-music major) - revised Fall 2015

A student wishing to minor in music must elect a minimum of 18 credits in music courses as approved by the department chairperson. Students must audition successfully on their primary instrument to be admitted into the minor. Admitted students will receive one semester of applied lessons and may receive, electively, additional semesters of applied lessons based on instructor availability. Students must be enrolled in an ensemble (as advised) during any semester in which they receive applied lessons.
