Part II. Description of Curriculum Change 1.New Syllabus of record

ECED 250 Language Development

3c-01-3cr

Prerequisites: ECED/EDEX major. Admission to Teacher Education Step 1

I.CATALOG DESCRIPTION:

Acquaints students with the process of children's language acquisition and development through expressive skills and language comprehension. Observation, documentation, and assessment of language development across the areas of listening, speaking, writing, drawing and reading will be explored form both a theoretical and practical perspective.

II. COURSE OUTCOMES: By the end of this course, teacher candidates will be able to:

- 1.Demonstrate understanding of the developmental phases of expressive language and language comprehension skills for both typical and atypical language learners through language development activities and literacy investigation. (PDE 1.A3, 1A9)
- 2.Utilize strategies for supporting children's language growth through a variety of home based and classroom based activities such as conversations, stories, songs, poems, and other developmentally appropriate activities. (PDE 1.B.2, 2A.1b, 2A1d, 2A1e)
- 3 Articulate a research based understanding of language and literacy development and the critical roles of family, home environment, and interaction with the learning environment (PDE 1I, IIA1g, IIA.i)
- 4. Model a variety of approaches to children's phonological development. (PDE 2.B.b.1)
- 5. Develop an understanding of organic and environmental challenges to children's developing language as well as an understanding of school and community based resources for support and intervention through exploration of research articles and literacy investigation. (PSE 1B8)
- 6. Articulate a research based approach for promoting and supporting language development for both native English speakers and English language learners. (PDE 1B 14F)
- 7. Demonstrate pedagogical approaches to language diversity in developing language as well as sensitivity to cultural and linguistic diversity. (PDE 1B 14, PDE 1H)

Literacy Investigations and Case studies

Week 15 Quiz 3 as Final exam

IV.EVALUATION METHODS

- 1) Quizzes (3)
- 2) Language development activities for Infant-Toddlers; 2-3 year-olds, preschoolers (3)
- 3) Literacy investigation and case study (1)
- 4) Classroom activities
- 5) Research article review (1)
- 6) Interview with early childhood professional (1)
- 7) Lesson Plans (3)

These written assignments will be evaluated and graded using the following criteria:

- a) Sentence Structure complete and grammatically correct;
- b) Word usage appropriate form, tense, and person;
- c) Punctuation and spelling correct usage and spelling;
- d) Terminology appropriate use of professional terms; and
- e) Organization of content.

ALL written assignments must be typed using Microsoft Office Word.

QUIZZES - There will be three (3) quizzes during the course of the semester. These quizzes will occur at regular intervals throughout the semester. Questions will be taken from the reading material as well as class lecture notes. The value of each quiz is listed in the grades section of the syllabus. (Objective 1)

LANGUAGE DEVELOPMENT ACTIVITIES - Each student must complete three language development activities that are research based, developmentally appropriate, and that can be linked directly to home based language development, or school based language development. This assignment must be typed in a format that closely resembles the examples that will be provided. (Objective 1, 2, 4, 6, 7)

LITERACY INVESTIGATION AND CASE STUDY— This assignment involves the investigation of an issue related to language development. The topic may be related to speaking, listening, reading, or writing, and should focus on a problem that can be researched through available professional literature, and investigated with a child and family. Examples of appropriate topics and completed case studies/investigations will be shared in class. This assignment will have a research component, an interview component, an observation and interaction component, and a documentation of results component. (Objective 1, 2, 3, 5, 6)

CLASSROOM ACTIVITIES—Teacher candidates will have the opportunity to participate in a wide variety of hands on, minds on learning activities during class time. It is expected that all students will engage fully in these activities. (Objective 1-7)

RESEARCH ARTICLE REVIEW— Each student will identify a research article related to an aspect of language development. This article should have been published since 2003, and should offer background and applicability for supporting the home based and/or classroom based language development of typical or atypical learners from birth to age 9. Students will review the article according to a rubric that will be provided in class. The article may be used to support the research component of the Literacy Investigation and Case Study. (Objective 1, 3, 5, 6)

INTERVIEW WITH EARLY CHILDHOOD PROFESSIONAL — Each teacher candidate should identify an early childhood professional whose work involves supporting children's developing language. An approved protocol of questions will be developed by the teacher candidate for use in conducting the interview. The purpose of the assignment is for the teacher candidate to develop a more comprehensive understanding of the myriad role of professionals in a variety of settings who support the development of children's language. Specific requirements and a rubric will be provided in class. (Objective 2, 3, 5, 6)

LESSON PLANS (2) – Teacher candidates will develop a lesson plan for two target age groups: preschoolers (4-5 year-olds) and primary learners (6-9 year-olds) that focuses on developing, supporting and extending an aspect of language development. Each plan should follow the approved format, citing professional resources used for preparation, and resources and materials used for the actual teaching of the lesson. These lessons will be taught in class to support teacher candidates' understanding of effective language pedagogy with individuals, small groups, and/ or large group instruction. (Objective 1, 2, 4, 5, 7)

V. EXAMPLE GRADING SCALE

Points will be accumulated during the semester from your written assignments, quizzes and course exams. Points will be distributed in the following manner.

1)	Quizzes (2 @ 50 points each and 1 @ 100 points)	200 points
2)	Language Development Activities (3 @ 25 points)	75 points
	(1 each for Infant-Toddlers; 2-3 year-olds and prescho	oolers)
3)	Literacy Investigation and Case Study	100 points
4)	Classroom Activities	25 points
5)	Research Article Review	25 points
6)	Interview with Early Childhood Professional	25 points
7)	Lesson Plans (2 @ 25 points each)	50 points
	Maximum Possible Score	500 points

93 - 100%	Α	463 - 500
85 - 92%	В	423 - 462
77 - 84%	С	383 - 422

VI. ATTENDANCE POLICY

Students are required to attend all class meetings. However, in keeping with the University policy on attendance, students will be allowed a number of absences equal to the credit value of the course. For this course it is three (3) unexcused absences. Students exceeding the limit of three (3) unexcused absences will be penalized one (1) letter grade per absence over the limit. An absence is considered excused only if it is accompanied by a doctor's excuse.

Course Analysis Questionnaire ECED 250

A. Details of the Course

- A1. This course is designed for all majors in the ECED PreK to Grade 4/Special Education PreK to Grade 8 major.
- A2. This course is one of several courses being revised within the Early Childhood Education/Special Education program revision and does not affect any courses outside the department. This course is required.
 - A3. This course has not been offered on a trial basis or as a special topic
 - A4. This course is not dual level and will not be offered as such.
 - A5. This course will not be offered for variable credit.
- A6. Examples of other institutions currently offering a similar course include SUNY Brockport EDI 407 Emergent Language and Literacy Northern Arizona University EDI 309 Integrated Literacy I: Developmental Literacy and Language Arts in the Elementary Classroom

 Mansfield University ELE 3362 Emerging Literacy
- A7. The content of this course is required by the competencies set forth by the Pennsylvania Department of Education, and by the National Association for the Education of Young Children.

Section B: Interdisciplinary Implications

- B1. This course will be taught (as assigned) by appropriately qualified instructors in the PSE department.
 - B2. This course is independent of other departments and is restricted to the major.
 - B3. This course will not be cross listed.

Section C: Implementation

- C1. Faculty resources are currently adequate to teach this course. This course is part of the redesigned curriculum mandated by the PDE's restructured certification guidelines. The preparation and equated workload for this course assignment is 1:1.
- C2. No other resources are required for this course. Space, equipment, and library materials are currently adequate to teach this course.
- C3. None of the resources for this course are funded by a grant

- C4. This course will be offered both fall and spring semesters to accommodate all majors in the Early Childhood/Special Education major.
- C5. Currently, there are about 125 majors total in Early Childhood Education, Elementary Education, and Special Education. We hope to enroll the same number of students in the proposed program which will replace the aforementioned areas. Therefore, we would plan to offer at least 4 sections of this course each year.
- C6. Each section of this course will accommodate 25 to 30 students.
- C7. No such recommendations are made.
- C8. This is not a distance education course

Section D: Miscellaneous

Include any additional information valuable to those reviewing this new course proposal.
